Challenges and Opportunities for Homeschoolers in Our Times

The challenges facing homeschooling families are those which face all people at all times, as listed by St. John: the world, the flesh, and the devil. In order to face these challenges well, we can turn to a proper understanding and affirmation of what proceeds from God Himself: the earth as He created it, the human body in its original integrity, and the Holy Spirit.

3:30 - 4:15 P.M.
Mrs. Virginia Seuffert

Public Education and the Necessity of Homeschooling

Do you know what goes on in public school classrooms? Many parents don't fully understand the role state schools have seized in molding the minds and habits of American children. How will the Common Core change the schools in your neighborhood? Parents—not the schools—are ultimately responsible for raising happy and virtuous children.

She Said, He Heard

We all have this ideal in our heads about how a homeschooling family should work. Problem is, mom's ideal may be very different than dad's. Mike and Amy tell their homeschooling story, the conversations they've had, the problems they've encountered. From pink laundry to discipline, Mike and Amy explain how homeschooling has brought them closer together.

7:00 - 7:45 P.M.
Prof. Joseph Pearce

*Reclaiming Christian Culture:
The Battle Begins in the Home*

The fight to restore and reclaim the priceless heritage of Christian Culture will be won or lost in the homes of Christians. This culture has been under systematic assault over the past half-century. Discover practical ways of winning this fight, and learn about the weapons which will be essential in the fight.

The Catholicism of The Hobbit

Tolkien described The Lord of the Rings as a "fundamentally religious and Catholic work." Discover how his earlier book, The Hobbit, is equally Catholic. Prof. Pearce, author of Bilbo's Journey, unravels the hidden Christian meaning of this classic tale of good and evil in Middle Earth.

11:00 - 11:45 A.M.
Mrs. Virginia Seuffert

Discipline: The First Essential of Homeschooling

Experienced homeschooling parents know the path to successful homeschooling is paved with virtues like obedience, order, patience, and industriousness. Calm, confident parents who inculcate these values will be rewarded with children who are a pleasure to teach.

1:30 - 2:15 P.M.
Msgr. John Fritz

Teaching Children to Revere the Lord in the Most Blessed Sacrament

In addition to teaching the catechism regarding the doctrines of the Blessed Sacrament before and after children receive First Holy Communion, parents should seek to instill in their children of all ages a deep love for Our Lord in the Most Holy Eucharist, both by word and example. This talk offers suggestions on how to practically do so.

2:30 - 3:15 P.M.
Mrs. Amy Kalscheur

There are Those Days

You're a strong Catholic homeschooling mom, and you can do anything. But some days are better than others. Amy will tell you about some of her not-so-great days and how she got through them, because even though homeschooling is a blessing, well, "There are those days...."
